DISTRII C

AT CONVENTION HALL ONTINUES.

UABLE THINGS GO

D IN ATTENDANCE DUR. ING THE DAY.

Jersey Bull, Polo Pony, Government Bond, Driving Horse and Cash Register Fall to the Lot of Lucky Holders of the Tickets.

The drawing for the Convention hall prizes was continued yesterday at the big building on Thirteenth and Central streets, the doors opening promptly at 9 o'clock There were but few people in attendance, and the judges recled off the numbers so fast that they were compelled to stop at times in order to enable the recorders to keep up with them.

The most remarkable thing in connec tion with the affair is the small number of people who secure gifts who are present when the numbers are called. Not once since the distribution began has any of the notable gifts been secured by persons in the building.

Yesterday James' Military band played until 9:45 o'clock, after which the real work began. There were but a few hundred pres ent at any time during the morning. In the afternoon there was no music, and the crowd was but little larger than that of the morning.

The lucky numbers that carried off valuable gifts during the day were as fol-

Homer Mcys, a pupil in the fifth grade at the Chace school, held the ticket that called for the Shetland pony, donated by

Conway F. Holmes. Thomas Barrett, of 314 Olive street, Argentine, held ticket No. 139,279, which called for a pair of game chickens. Barrett had only one ticket. He is a chicken fancier, and says that he expects to start a new strain of chickens, known as "Convention Hall" games. Barrett lives near the four lots in Argentine that were donated to the half fund, and says he would rather have the chickens than any one of the lots.

Miss Daisy Loudon, of 2942 Park avenue, secured the Galloway helfer, "Highland Mary," donated by J. M. Lowe. Miss Loudon said yesterday that she would sell Ticket No. 120154, which drew the Jersey bull, was owned jointly by R. G. Coatesworth, bookkeeper for Browning, King & Co., and C. E. Perkins, freight cierk for the Pittsburg & Gulf railroad. They room at 1635 Penn street, and together invested in twelve tickets shortly after the second lot of 60,000 were put on the market. Each held in addition four tickets. Mr. Perkins noticed that he was the win-ner about noon yesterday. He went immediately to notify Contesworth, who had the winning ticket, and to be sure he had not made a mistake in copying the number.

made a mistake in copying the number.
"It's the first time I ever got anything," Baid Mr. Coatesworth vesterday afternoon.
Paul Graupner, an employe of the McAdow Mantel Company, reported to the committee yesterday that he held the ticket calling for the gray donkey. The following are the gifts distributed yesterday and last night:
